JOHN McHALE, Jr.
President/CEO

John McHale has established a leadership based on tradition and insightful contemporary thinking.

In only his second year as president and chief executive officer of the Tigers, the 46-year-old has structured a modern major league franchise that is positioning itself to be competitive into the 21st century. During his first season in his position, McHale has revamped operations to form a sound foundation upon which to build.

And of paramount importance, McHale has worked diligently to initiate the building of a new park for the Tigers which will keep the franchise and city at the forefront of professional sports.

"This is both a challenging time and an exciting one for the Tigers and all of baseball," McHale said. "I couldn't think of another franchise where I'd more like to be than the Detroit Tigers. For me, the Tigers are baseball. I've been a Tigers fan since when I knew what baseball was.

"When my five brothers and sisters and I think of baseball, we think of a Tiger uniform. Though we've been associated with four other organizations, we've literally always been Tigers."

McHale is the 14th president in the history of the Tigers. He succeeded Mike Ilitch who served in the position since purchasing the team in 1992. Although he did not hold the title of president, John McHale, Sr. — John's father — served as general manager of the Tigers 36 years ago. McHale, Sr. also served as general manager of the Milwaukee Braves and Atlanta Braves, as well as president of the Montreal Expos.

McHale learned a lot from his father. He's most appreciative of three things.

"He taught me to tell the truth, work hard, and you never have enough pitching," McHale said.

While McHale literally learned from a master, he has done plenty to establish himself as one of the brightest young executives in professional sports.

McHale joined the Tigers after serving as executive vice president of operations for the Colorado Rockies. McHale literally helped to mold the Rockies from a dream into one of the brightest success stories in sports. In only their third year of existence, the Rockies made it to the National League Division Series last year.

During the early months of the franchise, McHale worked directly with general manager Bob Gebhard, overseeing the club's major league, minor league, scouting and player development operations. His responsibilities later were expanded to supervise all aspects of business operations.

McHale was instrumental in the development of Colorado's new stadium. He began that effort as a member of the Denver Baseball Commission from 1984-89.

McHale practiced law in Colorado since 1981 prior to joining the Rockies. From 1985 through 1992, his practice included assistance to Tal Smith in preparing and presenting salary arbitration cases for major league clubs.

McHale served as counsel to the Montreal Expos in 1975 and had worked in their minor league system during the summer months from 1969-72. He graduated from Notre Dame in 1971 where, in addition to his studies, he was a linebacker and defensive end, Boston College Law School in 1975, and received a Master of Laws degree from Georgetown University Law Center in 1982.

McHale serves on the board of directors of CATCH and as the 1996 Southeast Michigan WalkAmerica Chairman for the March of Dimes. Blending tradition with the contemporary is a rare feat in sports today. John McHale handles the role quite well.

RANDY SMITH

Vice President Baseball Operations & General Manager

Randy Smith came to Detroit on Oct. 30, 1995 with a vision for the Tigers.

It's the type of vision that should excite Tiger fans for many years to come.

"I believe very strongly that a strong club must have the ability to build from within," Smith said. "Scouting and player development are the keys to success of building a championship caliber team."

Fortunately for Tiger fans, these are precisely the strengths that Smith brings to the organization. The creation of development programs has been Smith's specialty throughout his career in baseball.

Smith begins his 13th season in professional baseball as a front office executive. This includes a stint as assistant general manager for the highly successful Colorado Rockies and general manager for the San Diego Padres.

"A strong scouting and player development program are at the core of any successful franchise that can compete on a long term basis in contemporary baseball," Smith said. "Not only must an organization be able to scout and sign the nation's top prospects, it also must be able to teach and develop them throughout the system."

The ability to teach fundamentals is one of the reasons Smith tapped Buddy Bell to succeed Sparky Anderson as manager of the Tigers.

"He can teach and he can communicate with young players and experienced players alike," Smith said.

Smith said he is honored to serve as general manager of a club with the rich tradition of the Detroit Tigers.

"To think of the Tigers and everything they have meant to baseball is somewhat humbling," he said. "Not only is this one of the premier franchises in all of professional sports, the Tigers also enjoy the finest fans anywhere."

Tiger President and Chief Executive Officer John McHale, Jr. sensed a perfect fit between the club and Smith.

"He's youthful, but carries a wealth of baseball experience," McHale said. "He's knowledgeable, enthusiastic, has the ability to communicate and is unafraid to take risks."

Smith, 32, began his career in professional baseball in 1984 with Beaumont, a Padres' farm team in the Texas League, as an administrative assistant. He joined the Padres that September to help prepare for the World Series which was won by the Tigers.

He was named assistant director of scouting and minor leagues in January, 1985 and three years later became director of scouting, a position he held until going to the Colorado Rockies in September, 1991 as assistant general manager.

As head of the Padres' scouting efforts, Smith inherited one of baseball's smallest scouting staffs and increased operations to include the Dominican Republic, Venezuela and Australia. He was selected by Baseball America in 1990 as one of 10 people who will influence baseball in the 1990's.

With the Rockies, Smith played an integral role in scouting talent for both the June free agent draft and the major league baseball expansion draft. His responsibilities also included negotiations of player contracts and utilizing his expertise in the scouting and player development areas.

When he was hired as the Padres' general manager at the age of 29, he became the youngest general manager in major league history.

Smith is a native of Houston, TX and attended Southwest Texas State University in San Marcos. Like McHale, Smith also comes with noted baseball bloodlines. He is the son of Tal Smith, a long-time executive with the Houston Astros, New York Yankees and Cincinnati Reds. He is currently president of the Astros.

STEVE LUBRATICH

Assistant General Manager

Behind every strong leader in baseball there usually is a strong support team. With the Detroit Tigers, that support is led by Assistant General Manager Steve Lubratich.

Lubratich serves under General Manager Randy Smith and brings to the position both experience and expertise.

Lubratich, 40, has been in professional baseball for 18 years, serving a variety of roles. Before joining the Tigers, his most recent position was assistant general manager for the San Diego Padres where his primary responsibility was the overall supervision of player development and farm system operations. He has similar responsibilities for the Tigers. Before moving to the front office, Lubratich played, coached, managed and scouted.

After attending the University of California at Riverside, Lubratich the former infielder signed with the California Angels as a free agent on June 20, 1977. He spent most of his playing career in the minor leagues with the exception of stints with the Angels in 1981 and 1983.

Lubratich joined the Padres' organization as a player at Las Vegas in 1985 and the following season began his coaching career, serving as player/coach for the Stars. His first managing job came in 1988 with Spokane of the Northwest League and his Indians won the championship. He was promoted to Riverside of the California League in 1989 and skippered the Padres' Double-A entry Wichita Wranglers in 1990 and 1991. Prior to being named assistant general manager, Lubratich served as the club's advance scout for three seasons.

Lubratich and his wife, Debby reside in Northville, MI. Steve is the father of Brandt and Natalie.

DAVID GLAZIER

Vice President/ Business Operations

David Glazier is a man of action behind the scenes of major league baseball.

At only 35-years-old, he has proven his ability to adeptly tackle a variety of the industry's changing issues.

Glazier was named to his current position on Nov. 3, 1995. In his position, he oversees club operations in the areas of sales and marketing, stadium operations, broadcasting, ticketing, merchandising and community affairs.

"David has the ability to lead and motivate people to meet the demands of an increasingly complex industry," said Tiger President and Chief Executive Officer John McHale, Jr. "We were very fortunate to be able to add him to the Tiger family."

Glazier joined the Tigers after serving as vice president of sales and marketing for the Colorado Rockies. He joined that department of the Rockies in August, 1991, and in a short period worked his way into a vice presidency.

In that position, Glazier oversaw all aspects of sales and marketing, as well as television advertising and corporate sponsorships. His responsibilities also encompassed the broadcasting department, including the staffing of the television operation and the Sony Jumbotron in the newly opened Coors Field.

A former executive with WLWT-TV, the flagship station of the Cincinnati Reds, Glazier also worked for the American League office and the Chicago White Sox.

Glazier is a graduate of Capital University (OH) and earned a master's degree from Ohio University. He and his wife, Julie, are the parents of daughters Jennifer and Mallory.

HOW THEY BECAME TIGERS

Research reveals that the nickname "Tigers" first was applied to the Detroit baseball club in 1895.

Baseball historians long credited Philip J. Reid, city editor of the Detroit Evening News, with first using the name in print in 1896, although George Stallings, manager of the Detroit team which was then a member of the Western League, took credit for the move which resulted in the nickname when he put his players in black-and-brown striped stockings which, he said, reminded the fans of "tiger stripes."

Later evidence makes it appear that an unidentified headline writer at the Detroit Free Press actually originated the Tiger nickname in 1895, a year before Stallings became manager and before the team was wearing striped stockings. In its early years, the team was simply called "Detroit," "the Detroits," sometimes the "Wolverines" (a name more familiarly associated with the University of Michigan) and at times the "Creams."

The "Creams" broke into print in 1894, the year Detroit entered the Western league under the ownership of G.A. Van Derbeck, a transient from Los Angeles. A writer of the time derisively referred to his aggregation as "what is purported to be the cream of California baseball players" — which may account for the name.

Then on April 16, 1895, the Free Press printed a headline over a baseball story which read: "Strouthers' Tigers Showed Up Very Nicely." On the same page, a string of baseball notes was headed: "Notes of the Detroit Tigers of 1895." Curiously, not once in either story was the word "Tigers" used.

From then on, the Free Press fairly regularly called them the "Tigers" and in May, 1895, the Sporting Life began using "Tigers" in its dispatches from Detroit. However, up to July 1, 1895 careful search of the files disclosed that neither the Detroit Evening News nor its Sunday paper, the News-Tribune, had used "Tigers."

Thus it seems that the Detroit Free Press must get credit for originating the Tiger nickname in 1895 — unless someone has other new evidence to the contrary.

TIGER STADIUM FACTS

The evolution of Tiger Stadium continued under the new ownership of Michael and Marian Ilitch.

For 1993, an $8 million renovation of Tiger Stadium was completed and featured the facelift of the traditional "corner" at Michigan and Trumbull with the construction of the new, fan-friendly Tiger Plaza.

The Tiger Plaza occupies the old employee parking lot, an area previously bound by the ticket office, Trumbull Avenue ticket booths, and Michigan Avenue wall.

Also included in the 1993 renovation were the installation of a color video scoreboard, an improved sound system and the enhancement of the Tiger Den seating area.

Previous improvements to Tiger Stadium began in 1977 and were completed in 1983, including installation of a $500,000 multi-vapor field lighting system, installation of modern, plastic seating, a $2 million electronic scoreboard, new radio and television broadcast facilities, and a complete external facelift.

The 1977 reconstruction of a $600,000 press box replaced the open-air press area that burned in a February 1, 1977 electrical fire.

Seating capacity (subject to final adjustments) is projected at 52,416 with 11,732 box seats, 23,611 reserved, 6,269 reserved grandstand, and 10,804 bleachers.

Baseball has been played on the site of Tiger Stadium since 1900, a year before the American League was born with Detroit as a charter member. Known as Bennett Park at that time, it became Navin Field in 1912, Briggs Stadium in 1938, and Tiger Stadium on January 1, 1961.

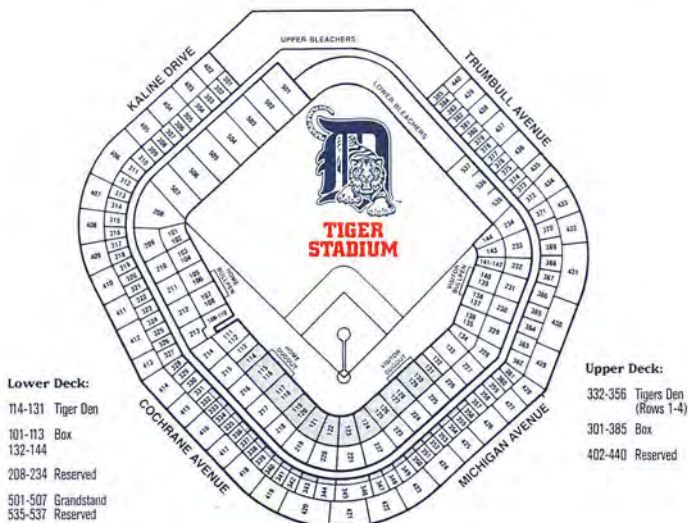

Tiger Stadium is owned by the City of Detroit, which purchased the plant from then-owner John E. Fetzer for $1.00 in November, 1977. The City of Detroit then leased the stadium back to the Tigers for 30 years, with a 30-year renewal option.

David Gus (Buddy) Bell Manager

Nickname: Buddy. Born: Pittsburgh, PA 8-27-51 (44) 6-3
200 B-R T-R. (Infielder). Married: Gloria Eysoldt.
Children: David, Michael, Ricky, Kristi, Traci.
Residence: Cincinnati, OH.

When he signed a two-year contract on Nov 9, 1995, Buddy Bell became the 29th manager in the history of the Detroit Tigers. He brings a lifetime of professional baseball experience. Buddy wears No. 25 which is the one he wore as a player and the one his father wore as a player in the National League.

Buddy comes to the Tigers after serving for two years as infield coach for the Cleveland Indians. Prior to joining the Indians, Buddy was the Chicago White Sox's Director of Minor League Instruction from 1991 to 1993. In his first year after retiring as a player, Buddy was a roving minor league hitting instructor for the Indians in 1990.

Buddy enjoyed an exceptional 18-season Major League career as one of the premier third basemen in the game through the '70s and '80s.

Buddy attended Xavier University in Cincinnati and Miami (OH) University before being picked by the Indians in the 16th round of the 1969 draft. Buddy spent the first seven years of his big league career with the Indians. He also played for Texas, Cincinnati and Houston.

Buddy is the second link in three generations of the Bell family in professional baseball. Buddy's father, Gus, excelled for 15 seasons in the National League. He and Buddy hold the all-time Major League record for hits by a father/son duo (4,337). Buddy's two sons, David and Michael, both play pro ball. David is an infielder with the St. Louis Cardinals' organization and has seen major league action. Michael was the Texas Rangers' first pick in the 1993 draft.

Buddy was named to the Topps and Baseball America All Rookie teams upon breaking into the big leagues in 1972. A five-time AL All-Star, Buddy was first selected in 1973, just his second year in the major leagues. He also represented the AL in 1980, '81, '82 and '84. Buddy earned six consecutive Gold Glove Awards from 1979 to 1984.

In 1988, Buddy was elected to the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame and received the Lou Gehrig Memorial Award, presented by the Phi Delta Theta national fraternity.

FIVE-100 GAME WINNERS

Five Tiger teams have won 100 or more games in a season — and two of them failed to win pennants.

Hughie Jennings' 1915 Tigers (100-54) finished 2 1/2 games behind the Red Sox and Bob Scheffing's 1961 club (101-61) was eight lengths behind the Yankees, piloted by Ralph Houk.

Two of the five clubs won the World Series. Under Sparky Anderson, the 1984 Tigers set a club record of 104 regular season wins. The Tigers (104-58) went on to beat San Diego in the World Series. Mayo Smith's 1968 Tigers (103-59) went all the way with a seven-game victory over the Cardinals for the World Championship.

The 1934 Tigers (101-53), managed by Mickey Cochrane, won a pennant, but lost the World Series to the Cardinals.

1996 POST SEASON

The 1996 Division Series will feature the winners of each of the 3 divisions and a wild card team squaring off in a best-of-five series. This year the home-field advantage of games 3, 4 and 5, will be held at the site of the West and Central Division Winners. The wild card team will be the second place team with the best record and will play the division winner with the best record, unless that team is also scheduled to host games 1 and 2, or is from the same division as the wild card.

The 2 winners from each of the Division Series will advance to the best-of-seven League Championship Series. The Central Division winner or its opponent in the Division Series will have the home-field advantage (games 1, 2, 6 and 7) for the LCS. However, if the opponent of the Central Division winner is the Wild Card, and the Wild Card wins the Division Series, the West or its opponent will host games 1, 2, 6 and 7 of the LCS. (NOTE: The wild card will never have the home field advantage for the Division or League Championship Series.) The American League has the home field advantage (Games 1,2,6 and 7) for the 1996 World Series.

THANKS A MILLION

The Tigers have drawn over one million fans at home in each of the past 31 seasons, the lone American League club to do so. Only St. Louis (33 years) and the Dodgers (51 years) have longer streaks. The Dodgers drew over one million fans in their last 13 seasons in Brooklyn, and all 38 years in L.A. In addition, the Tigers topped the one hundred million mark in franchise history in 1994.

GREAT TIGER NICKNAMES

The Tigers have had a few players with famous and unusual monikers over the years. There were the famous (Schoolboy Rowe), the obscure (Pepper Peploski) and many in between. For instance, Soldier Boy Murphy and Sailor Stroud suited up for Detroit, as have Piano Legs Hickman, Baby Doll Jacobson, and the Wilson trio, Mutt, Icehouse, and Squanto.

Other nicknames from the all-time Tiger roster include Skeeter (Barnes), Gator (Brown), Mark "The Bird" Fidrych, Hooks (Dauss), Snooks (Dowd), Razor (Ledbetter), Rip (Radcliffe), Hack (Simmons), Rocky (Colavito), Muddy (Ruel), Stubby (Overmire), Tubby (Spencer), Baldy (Louden) and Slim (Love). Perhaps the best of all belonged to John Francis Gammon, better known as Phenomenal Smith.

CAREER:

1994: After spending 1992-93 in the ML, Omar opened season at Louisville (AAA) . . . Made 9 starts for the Redbirds, going 2-1 with a 4.37 ERA . . . In that stretch, missed nearly 3 weeks with a pulled groin but was solid in his final 3 starts prior to a promotion to St. Louis . . . Recalled on June 10, started the next day at Phil, earning a win by scattering 7 H and allowing 4 R in 6.2 IP . . . Followed that with stretch of no decisions, covering 4 starts, interrupted by his only save of the year . . . During the 4 ND's, had 3.29 ERA, surrendering 10 ER in 27.1 IP . . . Snapped a 2-game slide July 21 vs Atl, going the distance for just the 2nd time in his ML career in a 6-3 win on a 3-hitter, retiring the last 21 men he faced, not allowing a hit after the 2nd inning . . . His season ended with a 12-4 win on Aug 10 at Fla, scattering 9 H in 7 IP, while helping himself with his 3rd career HR.

1993: Worked majority of season out of bullpen, making 49 relief app in 58 games . . . Switched between the pen and starting through the first month, working 6 in relief, then making a start, which he won over Atl and Greg Maddux, Apr 25, a 7-3 decision . . . Went back to pen for 2 outings, before making 5 straight starts then returned to the relief role for 41 consecutive app . . . Did not start again until Sept 25, winning his 5th decision of year, a 10-7 triumph over the Marlins . . . Was tough late, allowing just 6 ER in his last 21 IP for a 2.57 ERA . . . Season was interrupted for 15 days in June with a strained groin muscle forcing a stint on the DL.

1992: First full ML season . . . Split 18 decisions working almost exclusively as a starter, coming out of pen just twice in 32 outings . . . First career CG occurred Apr 24 when he defeated Mon by scattering 8 H and allowing 3 R . . . Slowed for nearly a month with a groin pull that occurred May 16 at Hou . . . Wound up on DL until mid-June . . . Set an obscure club record with each of his 84 R allowed on the year being earned, the most runs, all earned, surrendered in Cardinal history.

1991: Season started in St. Louis bullpen, but after a trio of stints, and a month of AAA seasoning at Louisville, returned to ML club to record most wins by a Cardinal rookie since Greg Mathews in 1986 . . . Was 11-7 for .611 winning pct, 10th best pct in NL . . . After Aug 1, posted an 8-4 ledger and 2.54 ERA . . . Went 4-2 with a 2.13 ERA in Aug to win Cardinal-of-the-Month honors . . . During a 3-start stretch from Sept 9-19, he carried shutouts into the 9th inning, only to be scored upon in the final frame each time . . . Fanned a career-best 9 men in the season finale on Oct 6 at Chi.

1990: Acquired by St. Louis from San Diego in 3-player trade in late-February prior to the opening of spring training . . . Spent majority of season at Louisville, working exclusively as a starter . . . Went 10-11 in 23 starts with a 2.82 ERA, including 5 CG and 2 SHO . . . Fanned a professional best 14 men in a July 7 win vs Indianapolis . . . Recalled to ML for first time on Aug 17, and made debut the next day vs Hou, allowing 1 R on 3 H over 8.0 IP, in a game the Cards eventually lost in extra innings.

1989: First stint at AA level, named to Texas League All-Star squad by going 12-11 at Wichita . . . During 4-start stint in May, allowed just 1 ER in 34.0 IP for a 0.26 ERA . . . On May 2 vs El Paso, tossed a 10-inn shutout on 5 H with 8 SO in a victory.

1988: Turned around his first pro year, by going 13-6 at Charleston, posting the 2nd best ERA in the South Atlantic League at 2.23 . . . Promoted to Riverside late in season.

1987: In first pro year had a 4-14 mark at Charleston after signing as a free agent with the San Diego system the previous Sept.

HITTING FOR THE CYCLE

Travis Fryman drilled his name into the history books on July 28, 1993 against the Yankees at Tiger Stadium.

Fryman hit for the cycle — single, double, triple, homer — to become just the 8th Tiger in history to turn the trick. He also added a second double in his last at bat to finish the game 5/5 with 2 runs and 4 RBI.

Fryman's effort was Detroit's first since Sept 7, 1950 when Hoot Evers did it against Cleveland. In all, 11 players have hit for the cycle at Detroit — 6 by the Tigers and 5 by opponents.

Besides Fryman, Mark Grace of the Cubs (May 9) and Jay Buhner of the Mariners (June 23) also hit the cycle in 1993. Since 1900, major league batters have hit for the cycle 187 times — 95 in the American League and 92 in the National.

Bob Meusel of the Yankees set the major league record for the most times hitting for the cycle with the third of his career at Navin Field July 26, 1928. The Cubs' Babe Herman tied the record in 1933. Eric Davis hit for the cycle while playing for Cincinnati against San Diego on June 2, 1989.

SIGNED by Mets as 10th round selection in June, 1986 draft.
OBTAINED by Tigers as free agent, January 1, 1996.

1995 SEASON: Primarily came off bench to play OF and pinch-hit . . . 5th deaf ML player in history and 1st since 1945 . . . Was with the Expos on 2 different occasions . . . First recalled on June 4 to replace Henry Rodriguez who was placed on the DL . . . Played in LF the same day after spending 10 hours, 20 minutes flying from Ottawa to San Diego . . . Was 1st appearance in ML in 2 seasons . . . Went 2/18, RBI as PH . . . First hit was an RBI single on June 18 at Cinn off Kevin Jarvis . . . CAREER:

1994: Given a good opportunity to be an extra OF on the Expos, coming off an outstanding season the year before . . . Injuries during spring training ended those hopes . . . Hampered by strained lower abdominal muscles causing discomfort when he ran and by a sprained left thumb which hampered his swing . . . Optioned to Ottawa on Mar 28 . . . Placed on DL as of Apr 7 with thumb injury . . . Remained at extended spring training on rehab . . . Played 3 games in the Florida State League before rejoining the Lynx, May 19 . . . Named International League player-of-the-week, June 26-July 2, batting .464 with 2 HR and 6 RBI . . . Had a combined total of 50 steals in the 2 leagues . . . Promoted to Expos at the conclusion of the AAA-International League playoffs . . . Pride's rise to the ML was one of the most inspirational stories of the season, not because any of his own personal circumstances had changed, but instead, because many more people had become aware of this special athlete . . . By the time he reached the ML in Sept, he had been the subject of profile pieces in Sports Illustrated and Baseball America and in countless newspapers in Eastern and International League cities . . . It was more of the same when he reached the Expos, as many parents of deaf children and various other institutions for the hearing impaired made requests of his time . . . He complied whenever able and finished the season, off the field, with an inspiring and emotional 2-hour guest spot on a local radio talk show where he answered callers by reading the lips of CIQC host Mitch Melnick who was repeating the caller's questions . . . Made ML debut as a defensive replacement in LF vs St. Louis, Sept 14 . . . First ML hit was a PH 2-run double off Bobby Thigpen and the Phils, Sept 17, helping the Expos overcome a 7-4 deficit to win 8-7 . . . Delivered PH triple Sept 23 off Greg McMichael and the Braves and then won a game with a 2-run PH homer off Richie Lewis and the Marlins, Sept 30, in the ninth inning, allowing John Wetteland to come in and nail down his record-tying 41st save of season.

1992: Baseball development was slowed by basketball . . . Played point guard at the College of William & Mary during the winter months while using his summers to play in the Mets' system . . . Was one of the ACC leaders in steals in his junior and senior years . . . Named in '94 one of the 10 "Outstanding Young Americans" of the year by the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce . . . Is a spokesperson for the Better Hearing Institute and works during the off-season as a special education instructional assistant . . . Frequently speaks at schools and organizations . . . Curtis reads lips but does not "sign."

CLEARING THE ROOF

Since Tiger Stadium was rebuilt along its present lines in 1938, 27 home runs have been hit over the roof and out of the stadium. Twenty-four have gone over the rightfield roof and three over the more-distant leftfield roof.

In 1994, two Tigers cleared the rightfield roof. Kirk Gibson connected for the 3rd time on May 1. Chad Kreuter followed that with a blast on May 21. On Aug 25, 1990, Cecil Fielder became the first Tiger to clear the leftfield roof with his 4th inning blast off Oakland ace Dave Stewart. Fielder's was the first home run over the leftfield roof in 22 years, since Washington's Frank Howard on May 18, 1968. Minnesota's Harmon Killebrew hit the first of the three leftfield shots on Aug 3, 1962.

Fans recall a number of long home runs hit out of the stadium before it was remodeled into a complete double-decker. The most historic of these was the 700th home run of Babe Ruth's career on July 13, 1934—a blow which cleared the rightfield wall and rolled several hundred feet down a street leading to the stadium. Even longer was a Ruthian blast of June 8, 1926 which also cleared the wall and came to rest nearly two blocks down Plum Street. The ball was retrieved some 800-850 feet from home plate by a youngster who received a $20 bill (borrowed from a teammate) for returning it to the Bambino.

SPARKY'S LEGACY

Sparky Anderson ended a long and successful tenure as manager of the Detroit Tigers at the conclusion of the 1995 campaign. His stay began on June 12, 1979 and he was in uniform on June 14. Sparky's 17-year run in Detroit is the longest of any Tiger manager. Along the way, he climbed near the top of many all-time records and has received various honors.

On June 18, 1995, the home fans witnessed a 10-8 victory over Baltimore that pushed Sparky into third place for the all-time winningest managers.

On Sept 1, 1995 Sparky became one of only four managers in history to manage 4,000 games. The others are Connie Mack, John McGraw and Bucky Harris.

In his 26-year managerial career, Sparky piloted 3 World Champions.

- Sparky's Cincinnati Reds won five West Division titles, four pennants and a pair of World Series. Cincinnati became only the third NL team and the first in 54 years to win back-to-back World Series in 1975-76.
- Sparky's 1984 Tigers dominated and led from wire-to-wire. The club got off to a ferocious 35-5 start and went on to win a club record 104 games. They swept Kansas City in the playoffs and took San Diego in 5 games for the World Series title.
- Sparky's 1987 Tigers thrilled fans by dramatically defeating Toronto for the East Division title.
- Sparky is the only manager to lead two franchises in victories. (Detroit, 1,331 and Cincinnati, 863).
- Sparky is the only manager to record a 100 win season in each league.
- Sparky is the first and only manager to lead teams in both leagues to a World Series title.
- Sparky was named Manager of the Year in the American ('84, '87) and National Leagues ('72, '75).
- Sparky was elected to the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame in 1992.
- In 1987, Sparky founded CATCH - Caring Athletes Team for Children's and Henry Ford Hospitals.

TIGER POST-SEASON HISTORY

WORLD SERIES

1907—Chicago 4 games, Detroit 0 (Plus 12-inn. tie)

Manager Frank Chance's National League champions by 17½-game margin were easy winners over Hughie Jennings' tired Tigers, who nosed out Philadelphia by six points in bitter finishing drive. Tiger morale suffered when Catcher Charlie Schmidt failed to hold 9th-inning third strike which would have ended first game on winning note. Darkness brought 3-3 tie in 12 innings and Cubs, who stole 18 bases during series, went on to well-deserved triumph.

BROADCAST BIOS

FRANK BECKMANN achieved the dream of his professional career when he was named the No. 1 play-by-play broadcaster for Tiger games on radio station WJR.

"It's still hard to believe," said the 46-year-old veteran who is in his second season. "I grew up on Tiger baseball. When I was a kid, I did make believe play-by-play."

Since beginning his career at WJR in 1972, Beckmann certainly has put together a sparkling professional career to merit his new position.

Beckmann began with the station as a news reporter, specializing in the kind of hard-hitting reporting that won him numerous awards, including the National Headliner. He also received a citation for "Best Coverage of a Single News Event...the Hoffa Disappearance."

Since moving to WJR's Sports Department in 1976, he has been honored as Michigan's top sportscaster by both the Associated Press and United Press International. The National Association of Sportscasters voted him "Michigan Sportscaster of the Year" in 1992. In addition, his football descriptions were acclaimed as Detroit's best play-by-play in 1985 by both wire services and the Detroit News. Beckmann did Detroit Lions play-by-play for 10 years. He also has served as the play-by-play broadcaster for University of Michigan football.

Beckmann became sports director in 1979. In 1981, he began hosting WJR's Sportswrap talk show.

Beckmann is involved with a variety of charities. For his work, he has been the recipient of several awards, including the 1995 Humanitarian Award from the March of Dimes. Beckmann resides with his wife and two children in suburban Detroit.

AL KALINE teams with fellow Hall of Famer George Kell for his 21st season analyzing Tiger baseball on Detroit's over-the-air network, flagshiped by WKBD-TV.

Following his retirement as a player in 1974, Kline took his place on the broadcasts in 1976, working with Kell, Larry Osterman, and Don Kremer. By 1980, Kline and Kell were the anchors of the broadcasts and have remained so for the past 15 seasons.

Kline's Hall of Fame career as a player began in 1953 as an 18-year old signee out of Baltimore, MD. In 1955, at the age of 20, Kline won the American League batting title with a sparkling .340 average.

The youngster went on to appear in 18 All-Star games and collected 10 Gold Gloves for his wizardry in rightfield. To this day, Kline is remembered as one of the finest rightfielders ever to play.

In 22 years in a Tiger uniform, Kline carved a storybook career. The 1968 Tigers won the American League pennant and defeated the St. Louis Cardinals for the World Series title in 7 games. In 1974, at the age of 39, he collected his 3,000th major league hit, a feat matched by only 18 players in history. In 1980, in his first year of eligibility, Kline was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

Kline's achievements did not come without a struggle. A childhood foot malformation hampered Kline through his first 12 years in the majors, causing him great discomfort until corrective surgery was performed in 1965.

Kline and his wife, Louise, live in suburban Detroit and are the parents of two sons.

GEORGE KELL not only is the dean of Tiger radio and television broadcasters, he also is one of the most respected individuals in the game of baseball.

The Hall of Famer has been calling Tiger baseball for 36 of the last 37 years. His insight into the game, coupled with his gentlemanly style, make him synonymous with Tiger broadcasts.

A veteran of 15 seasons in the major leagues, Kell played for the Tigers for 6 years, 1946-51, including the memorable 1949 campaign in which he nosed out Ted Williams for the American League batting title. In 6 seasons in Detroit, Kell never hit below .304.

Kell topped the .300 mark in 9 of his 15 seasons and finished with a lifetime batting average of .306 in 1,995 games. He represented the American League in 7 All-Star games.

In 1969, he was voted the Tigers' All-Time Greatest Third Baseman and elected to the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame. In 1983, he was enshrined in the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

While sitting out the 1957 season with an injury in Baltimore, Kell was first exposed to the broadcasting side of baseball. He began airing pre-game programming for the Orioles in 1958, and joined the Tigers in 1959 as a radio-television commentator. With the exception of 1964, Kell has been broadcasting Tiger baseball ever since.

Long-time veteran ERNIE HARWELL returns for another season as a play-by-play announcer for Pro-Am Sports System's (PASS) coverage of Tiger baseball.

Harwell was a fixture on Tiger radio from 1960-91. In 1993 he spent a year back in the booth before working on selected PASS telecasts in 1994.

Harwell started in radio in 1940. He broke into major league baseball in 1948 as a play-by-play broadcaster for the Brooklyn Dodgers. In 1950, Harwell moved to the Giants, and then to the Orioles, before coming to Detroit in 1960.

Harwell's awards are numerous. In 1989, he was inducted unanimously into the National Sportscasters Hall of Fame.

Born in Washington, GA on Jan. 25, 1918, Harwell is a graduate of Emory University. Harwell and his wife, Lulu, reside in suburban Detroit.

FRED McLEOD is part of the Tiger PASS team again this season. He brings a career load of experience to the booth.

McLeod joined the PASS team in 1984 as an announcer for Piston telecasts. Along with various other sports features, McLeod also is an anchor/reporter for WDIV which he joined in 1989. Prior to that he was sports director at WJBK for 7 years.

Before coming to Detroit, McLeod worked 2 years in San Francisco and 4 years in Cleveland. He did play-by-play work for the Indians and Cavaliers telecasts.

McLeod graduated from Point Park College in Pittsburgh where he was a pitcher for 4 years. In his senior year, his team finished 4th at the NAIA College World Series. For his collegiate career, he compiled a 13-0 record and 1.62 ERA.

McLeod resides with his wife, Beth, and 3 children in suburban Detroit.

Former Tiger JIM PRICE begins his 4th season as play-by-play announcer on Pro-Am Sports System's (PASS) coverage of Tiger baseball. He works with Ernie Harwell and Fred McLeod on the telecasts and also works with George Kell and Al Kline on theirs.

Price, 53, was a catcher for 5 seasons with the Tigers, 1967-71. While playing in the shadow of Tiger catching great, Bill Freehan, Price still enjoyed his moments. He was a member of the Tiger squad that beat the St. Louis Cardinals in the 1968 World Series, playing 64 games and catching 42.

In 1969, Price belted 9 home runs in only 192 at-bats.

A native of Harrisburg, PA, Price was a three-sport star at Hershey (PA) HS. He refused 25 college football offers to sign with the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1960. The Tigers purchased him in April, 1967.

Price's broadcast credits include cable TV play-by-play for the White Sox, color commentary for ESPN college baseball and weekend sports anchor for WJBK-TV in Detroit.

Price resides with his wife, Lisa, and son Jack, in Royal Oak, MI.

FREE AGENT DRAFT RULE—A BRIEF SUMMARY: Major League and National Association clubs meet in June for the purpose of drafting free agent player talent . . . The meeting is conducted by conference phone . . . Selection of free agent entitles the club to the exclusive right of negotiation with that player for a specified period (from date of selection until 15 days prior to next draft meeting or player enters 4-year college).

Clubs choose in inverse order of major league standings, selecting free agents and previous draftees who had not signed contracts but had instead enrolled in four-year colleges and since had either completed junior year or become 21 years of age.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: A game terminated by curfew or by a prearranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed far enough to be an official game (i.e. 4-1/2 or 5 innings) (Rule 4.10).

A game terminated by light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club is a suspended game any time after it begins.

Rule 4.11 (d) . . . A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play. EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a SUSPENDED GAME in each of the following situations: (1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored. (2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled, single game between the two clubs on the same ground . . . If this is not possible, other provisions for resumption are specified in the American League Regulation 4.12. Any LEGAL game called due to weather with the score TIED is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

TRADING REGULATIONS: Major League waivers required only between August 1 and the first day after the conclusion of the season for interleague trades and trades within own league.

BATTING/PITCHING (ERA) CHAMPION QUALIFICATIONS: 502 or more plate appearances. 162 or more innings.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

SAVE RULE: A relief pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions: 1) he is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; 2) he is not the winning pitcher; and 3) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or b) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (i.e., the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or c) he pitched effectively for at least three innings.

PLAYER LIMITS: 25 players from opening day through August 31 . . . 40 players from September 1 through end of season . . . Players in military service do not count against the under control list while on active duty. Upon separation from the service, a player will be reinstated to his club's normal player limits after he has completed a 15-day trial period or has participated in a championship game, whichever comes first.

DISABLED LISTS: 15-Day Disabled List — no limit on number of players placed on this list; 60-Day Emergency Disabled List — may be used only when club is at maximum of 40 players. No limit on number of players placed on this list.

DEFINITION OF A NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 6 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 6 p.m. and is delayed for any reason, it will be considered a day game. If a game is scheduled to start at 6:01 p.m., it will be considered a night game. Two-night double-headers shall be included in double-header statistics and shall be considered two night games. When afternoon and night games (separate admissions) are played on the same date, the games shall be day and night and count as single games.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CURFEW RULE: All night games must be called at 1 a.m. local time. But if an inning is started prior to 1 a.m. city time, it can be completed.

HOW TO FIGURE — BATTING AVG: Divide the number of hits by number of times-at-bat . . .

ERA: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine and divide by number of innings pitched . . .

FIELDING: Divide the number of errorless chances by number of total chances (assists, putouts and errors) . . .

SLUGGING: Divide the number of total bases (one base for single, two for double, etc.) by times-at-bat . . .

MAGIC NUMBER: Determine number of games to be played, add one, then subtract number of games ahead in loss column of second place team.

SPRING TRAINING FACTS SINCE 1966

The Tigers have trained at Lakeland since 1934, first at Henley Field and since 1966 at Marchant Stadium, a mile north. The all-concrete grandstand at Marchant Stadium was built by the City of Lakeland at a cost of $500,000, and in 1972 the first night game was played there under a new $160,000 set of lights.

In 1994, a food and picnic plaza was constructed under the stands for the convenience of the fans.

Adjacent of the 12-acre tract on which the stadium is situated is Tigertown, the Tigers' minor-league training site since 1953. A plush, three-story, fireproof dormitory featuring air-conditioning, carpeted rooms and lounges on each floor, was added to the Tigertown complex in 1971. It houses 200 minor league players and officials.

For 1993 a new administration building, cafeteria and recreation center were constructed.

The Marchant Stadium grandstand seats 7,027, including 650 box seats. The Tigers' record at Marchant Stadium is 224-191-6 and 1,719,362 fans have paid to see Grapefruit League games since it opened.
